

Andrea Szarowicz is currently the Director of Orchestras at Steinbrenner High School in Hillsborough County. Her previous places of employment were Gaither High School (Director of Orchestras & Guitar) 2008 – 2019, Monroe Middle School (Director of Orchestras/Band) from 2004-2008, and 10 elementary schools as a floating Strings Specialist 2003 - 2005. Mrs. Szarowicz holds a double bachelor's degree from the University of South Florida in Music (violin) and Gerontology (03'); She currently holds a Master's in Business in Public Health from the University of Arizona (06') and a Master's in Music Education from Florida State University (12').

Mrs. Szarowicz has been on the Florida Orchestra Association (F.O.A) executive board since 2008 where she has served as a district chair and is the current 11-12 All State Coordinator. In her spare time, she is an active adjudicator for both F.O.A and F.B.A. She has guest conducted for All County's in Counties around Florida and most recently started working on publications "in press" associated with A.S.T.A and G.I.A publications.

During her time as an All State Coordinator she has initiated the program of bringing in outside college professors to help the All State students during All State. As a former Florida All State student, Mrs. Szarowicz hopes to continue to enhance the student experience for all All State students.

When she is not teaching, she enjoys her time with her husband Michael and seven year old son Mikey exploring state parks, doing science projects with her son, and golfing.
